Elections Canada

For more information, go to canada.ca/cra-elections-canada.

A) Do you have Canadian citizenship? If yes, go to question B. If no, skip question B. 1 [X] Yes 2 [ ] No

B) As a Canadian citizen, do you authorize the Canada Revenue Agency to give your name, address, date of birth, and citizenship to Elections Canada to update the National Register of Electors or, if you are 14 to 17 years of age, the Register of Future Electors? 1 [ ] Yes 2 [X] No

Your authorization is valid until you file your next tax return. Your information will only be used for purposes permitted under the Canada Elections Act, which include sharing lists of electors produced from the National Register of Electors with provincial and territorial electoral agencies, members of Parliament, registered and eligible political parties, and candidates at election time.

Your information in the Register of Future Electors will be included in the National Register of Electors once you turn 18 and your eligibility to vote is confirmed. Information from the Register of Future Electors can be shared only with provincial and territorial electoral agencies that are allowed to collect future elector information. In addition, Elections Canada can use information in the Register of Future Electors to provide youth with educational information about the electoral process.

Indian Act - Exempt income

Check this box if you have income that is exempt under the Indian Act.
For more information about this type of income, go to canada.ca/taxes-indigenous-peoples. 1 [ ]

If you checked the box above, complete Form T90, Income Exempt from Tax under the Indian Act, so that the CRA can calculate your Canada workers benefit for the 2024 tax year, if applicable, and your family's provincial or territorial benefits. The information you provide on Form T90 will also be used to calculate your Canada training credit limit for the 2025 tax year.

Foreign property

Did you own or hold specified foreign property where the total cost amount of all such property, at any time in 2024, was more than CAN$100,000? 26600 1 [ ] Yes 2 [X] No

If yes, complete Form T1135, Foreign Income Verification Statement. There are substantial penalties for not filing Form T1135 by the due date. For more information, see Form T1135.

Consent to share contact information - Organ and tissue donor registry

authorize the CRA to provide my name, mailing address, email address and date of birth to the territory of Nunavut so that Nunavut may contact or send information to me about organ and tissue donation in order to maintain the organ and tissue donor registry. For more information about organ and tissue donation in Canada, go to canada.ca/organ-tissue-donation. 1 [ ] Yes 2 [X] No

Note: You are not consenting to organ or tissue donation when you authorize the CRA to share your contact information with Nunavut. Your authorization is only valid for the tax year for which you are filing this tax return. Your information will only be used for purposes permitted under the Access to Information and Protection Privacy Act (Nunavut), and the Human Tissue Act (Nunavut).

T1-2024

Amounts for Spouse or Common-Law Partner and Dependants

Schedule 5

Protected B when completed

Complete this schedule to claim an amount on line 30300, 30400, 30425 or 30450 of your return.
For information about the Canada caregiver amount for infirm children under 18 years of age, see line 30500 on the last page of this schedule.
Attach a copy of this schedule to your paper return.

Eligibility for the Canada caregiver amount

You may be able to claim the Canada caregiver amount for 2024 if, at any time in the year, you supported your spouse or common-law partner with an impairment in physical or mental functions, or if one or more of the following individuals was dependent on you for support because of an impairment in physical or mental functions:

- your (or your spouse's or common-law partner's) child or grandchild
- your (or your spouse's or common-law partner's) parent, grandparent, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, niece or nephew (if they resided in Canada at any time in the year)

An individual is considered to be dependent on you for support if they rely on you to regularly and consistently provide them with some or all of the basic necessities of life, such as food, shelter and clothing.

Person with an impairment in physical or mental functions	You may be entitled to claim
Spouse or common-law partner	both of the following amounts: • $2,616 in the calculation of line 30300 • up to $8,375 on line 30425
Eligible dependant 18 years of age or older (who is a person you are eligible to make a claim for on line 30400) (see note)	both of the following amounts: • $2,616 in the calculation of line 30400 • up to $8,375 on line 30425
Eligible dependant under 18 years of age at the end of the year (who is a person you are eligible to make a claim for on line 30400) (see note)	one of the following amounts: • $2,616 in the calculation of line 30400 • $2,616 on line 30500
Each of your (or your spouse's or common-law partner's) children under 18 years of age at the end of the year (see note)	$2,616 on line 30500
Each dependant 18 years of age or older who is not your spouse or common-law partner or an eligible dependant for whom an amount is claimed on line 30300 or line 30400	up to $8,375 on line 30450

Note: You cannot claim an amount on lines 30400, 30450 and 30500 for your child if you were the only parent required to make support payments for that child to your current or former spouse or common-law partner. This rule applies only if one of the following conditions applied to you:

- You lived separate and apart from your current or former spouse or common-law partner throughout 2024 because of a breakdown of your relationship
- You were separated from your spouse or common-law partner for only part of 2024 because of a breakdown in your relationship and you are claiming a deduction on line 22000 of your return for support amounts that you paid to your current or former spouse or common-law partner

For more information, see lines 30400, 30450, and 30500 of this schedule.

Supporting documents

The Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) may ask for a signed statement from a medical practitioner showing when the impairment began and what its duration is expected to be. However, a signed statement from a medical practitioner is not required if the CRA already has an approved From T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, for a specified period.

For children under 18 years of age, the statement should also show that the child is, and will likely continue to be, dependent on others for a long and continuous period because of an impairment in physical or mental functions. (Dependent on others means the child needs much more help for their personal needs and care compared to children of the same age.)

Line 30300 - Spouse or common-law partner amount

Claim this amount if, at any time in the year, you supported your spouse or common-law partner and their net income from line 23600 of their return (or the amount that it would be if your spouse or common-law partner had filed a return) was less than your basic personal amount (plus $2,616 if your spouse or common-law partner was dependent on you because of an impairment in physical or mental functions).

If you had to make support payments to your current or former spouse or common-law partner and you were separated for only part of 2024 because of a breakdown in your relationship, you can claim whichever amount is better for you:

- the amount on line 22000 of your return for deductible support payments made in the year to your current or former spouse or common-law partner
- the amount on line 30300 of your return for your spouse or common-law partner

If you reconciled with your spouse or common-law partner and were living together on December 31, 2024, you can claim an amount on line 30300 of your return and any allowable amounts on line 32600 of your return.

Only one spouse or common-law partner can claim the amount on line 30300 for each other for the same year.

Did your marital status change to a status other than married or living common-law in 2024? If yes, check this box and enter the date of the change.	55220	Month	Day
Basic personal amount from line 30000 of your return			15,705 00	1
If you are eligible for the Canada caregiver amount for your spouse or common-law partner, enter $2,616 (see line 30425 on page 4).	51090	+		2
Line 1 plus line 2		=	15,705 00	3
Your spouse's or common-law partner's net income from line 23600 of their return (1)		-	2,500 00	4
Line 3 minus line 4 (if negative, enter "0"). Enter this amount on line 30300 of your return.		=	13,205 00	5

(1) If you were living with your spouse or common-law partner on December 31, 2024, use their net income for the whole year even if you separated for part of the year (then you got back together and started living together again in 2024), you got married in 2024 or became a common-law partner or started to live with your common-law partner again in 2024.

If you separated in 2024 because of a breakdown in your relationship and were not back together on December 31, 2024, reduce your claim by the amount of your spouse's or common-law partner's net income before the separation.

If your spouse or common-law partner is a non-resident, enter their net income in Canadian dollars. The CRA may ask you to provide supporting documents later.

Line 30400 - Amount for an eligible dependant

Claim this amount if, at any time in the year, you supported an eligible dependant and their net income from line 23600 of their return (or the amount that it would be if your eligible dependant had filed a return) was less than your basic personal amount (plus $2,616 if the eligible dependant was dependent on you because of an impairment in physical or mental functions).

If you did not claim an amount on line 30300 of your return, you may be able to claim this amount for one dependant if, at any time in the year, you met all the following conditions:

- You did not have a spouse or common-law partner or, if you did, you were not living with them, supporting them, or being supported by them
- You supported the dependant in 2024
- You lived with the dependant (in most cases in Canada) in a home you maintained. You cannot claim this amount for a person who was only visiting you

In addition, the dependant must also be one of the following persons by blood, marriage, common-law partnership or adoption:

- your parent or grandparent
- your child, grandchild, brother or sister under 18 years of age
- your child, grandchild, brother or sister 18 years of age or older with an impairment in physical or mental functions

Notes: If your dependant usually lives with you when not in school, the CRA considers that dependant to live with you for the purposes of this amount.
For the purposes of this claim, your child is not required to live in Canada but they must still have lived with you. For example, you were a deemed resident living in another country with your child. (For information about deemed residents, go to canada.ca/cra-deemed-residents.)

You cannot claim this amount if any of the following applies:

- The person you want to claim this amount for is your spouse or common-law partner. (You may be able to claim an amount for your spouse or common-law partner on line 30300 of your return.)
- Another person is claiming the spouse or common-law partner amount on line 30300 of their return for this dependant
- Another person in your household is making this claim (Each household is allowed only one claim for this amount, even if there is more than one dependant in the household)
- Another person is claiming the amount on line 30400 of their return for this dependant. If you and another person can both claim this amount for the same dependant (such as in the shared custody of a child) but cannot agree on who will claim the amount, neither of you can make the claim
- You had to pay child support in 2024 for the eligible dependant. You cannot claim an amount on line 30400 for a child you had to make support payments for, except in the following situations:
  - You were separated from your spouse or common-law partner for only part of 2024 because of a breakdown in your relationship. In this case, you can choose to either claim the amount for an eligible dependant on line 30400 of your return, plus any allowable amounts for that child on line 30425 and line 31800 of your return, (where all the eligibility requirements are otherwise met) or you can chose to claim the deductible support payments you paid to your spouse or common-law partner on line 22000 of your return instead.
  - You and another person had to make support payments for the child in 2024. Claim an amount on line 30400 only if you and the other person paying support agree that you will be the one making the claim. For more information, see Guide P102, Support Payments

Eligible dependant with an impairment in physical or mental functions

If the eligible dependant is 18 years of age or older and dependent on you because of an impairment in physical or mental functions, see line 30425 of this schedule.

If the eligible dependant is under 18 years of age at the end of the year, you may claim one of the following amounts:

- $2,616 on line 30500 of your return for each eligible dependant who is your (or your spouse's or common-law partner's) child
- $2,616 in the calculation of line 30400 if the eligible dependant does not meet the definition of child below

A child includes a person who is one of the following:

- your (or your spouse's or common-law partner's) biological or adopted child
- your child's spouse or common-law partner
- under your custody and control and who is wholly dependent on you for support, even if they are older than you

Note: The eligible dependant must be dependent on others because of the impairment and will likely continue to be dependent on others for an indefinite duration. Because of this impairment, the eligible dependant needs much more help for personal needs and care compared to other persons of the same age.

You cannot split this amount with another person. Once you claim this amount for a dependant 18 years of age or older, no one else can claim this amount or an amount on line 30425 of their return for that dependant.

If you were a single parent on December 31, 2024 and you chose to include all of the universal child care benefit lump-sum payment that you may have received in 2024 on your dependant's return, include this amount in the calculation of the dependant's net income.

If you cannot claim an amount on line 30400 of your return for an eligible dependant 18 years of age or older because you have a spouse or common-law partner, you may still be able to claim the Canada caregiver amount for other infirm dependants age 18 or older on line 30450 of your return.

(2) If the dependant is your (or your spouse's or common-law partner's) infirm child under 18 years of age, you must claim the Canada caregiver amount on line 30500 instead of line 51100.

Line 30425 - Canada caregiver amount for spouse or common-law partner, or eligible dependant age 18 or older

You may be able to claim this amount if you can claim an amount for your spouse or common-law partner on line 30300 of your return or for an eligible dependant 18 years of age or older on line 30400 of your return.

Note: Only one claim can be made for this amount. You cannot split this amount with another person.

Complete this calculation only if you entered $2,616 on line 51090 or line 51100 of this schedule for a person whose net income is between $8,397 and $28,041.

Line 30450 - Canada caregiver amount for other infirm dependants age 18 or older

You can claim an amount for each dependent who meets all of the following conditions:

- They were dependent on you because of an impairment in physical or mental functions
- They were 18 years of age or older
- They were your (or your spouse's or common-law partner's) child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, niece, or nephew
- They were a resident of Canada at any time in the year. You cannot claim this amount for a person who was only visiting you
- Their net income from line 23600 of their return (or the amount it would be if the dependant had filed a return) was less than $28,041

You cannot claim an amount on line 30450 of your return for dependants who do not have an impairment in physical or mental functions, including a parent or grandparent.

A parent includes someone you were completely dependent upon and who had custody and control of you when you were under 19 years of age.

A child includes a person who is under your custody and control and is wholly dependent on you for support, even if they are older than you.

If you or another person is claiming an amount on line 30300 or on line 30400 of the return for the dependant, you cannot claim an amount on line 30450 of the return for that dependant.

If you had to make support payments for a child, you cannot claim an amount on line 30450 of your return for that child. However, if you were separated from your spouse or common-law partner for only part of 2024 because of a breakdown in your relationship, you may be able to claim an amount for that child on line 30450 of your return if you do not claim any support amounts paid to your spouse or common-law partner on line 22000 of your return. Claim whichever is better for you.

Note If you and another person support the same dependant, you can split the claim for that dependant. However, the total amount of your claim and the other person's claim cannot be more than the maximum amount allowed for that dependant.

Complete the chart below for each dependant who meets the conditions above.

Information about your dependant

First name:	Last name:	Year of birth	Relationship to you

Address:

Base amount	28,041 00	1
Infirm dependant's net income from line 23600 of their return	-	2
Allowable amount for this dependant:
Line 1 minus line 2 (if negative, enter "0") (maximum $8,375)	=	3

Enter on line 30450 of your return the total of allowable amounts claimed for all dependants.

Enter the number of dependants you are claiming this amount for. 51120

Line 30500 - Canada caregiver amount for infirm children under 18 years of age

You can claim $2,616 for each of your (or your spouse's or common-law partner's) children who meet all of the following conditions: The child:

- Was under 18 years of age at the end of the year
- had an impairment in physical or mental functions and will likely continue to be dependent on others for an indefinite duration
- needs much more help with personal needs and care compared to children of the same age

Note: You can claim the full amount in the year of the child's birth, death, or adoption.

If the child does not live with both parents throughout the year, only the parent (or the parent's spouse or common-law partner) who claims an amount on line 30400 for that child can make the claim on line 30500. You may still be able to claim an amount on line 30500 for your child if you (or your spouse or common-law partner) could not claim the amount on line 30400 for any of the following reasons:

- You claimed an amount on line 30300 for your spouse or common-law partner
- You claimed an amount on line 30400 for another dependant
- Another person in your household claimed an amount on line 30400 for another dependant
- The child's income is too high

You (or your spouse or common-law partner) can claim this amount for all eligible children separately, but the amount can only be claimed once for each child.

If you have shared custody of the child throughout the year, the parent who claims the amount for an eligible dependant (line 30400) for that child can make the claim on line 30500. If you have shared custody of the child throughout the year but cannot agree who will claim the amount, neither of you can make this claim.

If you and another person had to make support payments for the child in the year, you can claim this amount only if both of you agree that you will be making the claim.

If you were the only person who had to make support payments for the child for 2024, you may not be eligible to claim this amount for that child.

For more information about support payments, see Guide P102, Support Payments.

For the purposes of this amount, a child includes a person who is one of the following:

- your (or your spouse's or common-law partner's) biological or adopted child
- your child's spouse or common-law partner
- under your custody and control and is completely dependent on you for support

Enter the number of children you are claiming this amount for on line 30499 of your return and enter the result of the calculation on line 30500.

Note: To transfer all or part of this amount to your spouse or common-law partner, or to claim all or part of their amount, complete schedule 2.

Notice to Client

The discounter must give you, at the time of your transaction, at least 85 cents for each dollar of the first $300 of the estimated refund, plus 95 cents for each remaining dollar minus the tax in box D. The discounter must pay you the full amount in box E.

If you ask, the discounter has to give you a copy of your return and any related information slips.

The discounter has to inform you of the actual amount of the refund and send you any notice of assessment or notice of reassessment received using Form RC72, Notice of the Actual Amount of the Refund of Tax.

If the actual amount of the refund is more than the estimated amount (box A) by $10 or more, the discounter has to make every reasonable effort to pay you the full amount of the excess as soon as the refund is received. However, the discounter is allowed to keep the refund interest.

The following are examples of refund amounts and the cost to you to discount these amounts. These costs do not include taxes such as the GST/HST/QST and PST.

Refund	Cost to you to discount
$250	$37.50
$500	$55.00
$750	$67.50
$1,000	$80.00
