Instructions

If an election has been made under paragraph 261(3)(b) of the Income Tax Act (Act) to report in a functional currency, state all monetary amounts in that functional currency, otherwise state all monetary amounts in Canadian dollars. Round all monetary amounts to the nearest Canadian dollar or functional currency unit, if applicable. Only certain corporations can elect to report in a functional currency. See the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) publication Income Tax Folio S5-F4-C1, Income Tax Reporting Currency, at: canada.ca/cra-income-tax-reporting-currency The codes for the functional currencies accepted at the time of publication are as follows:

AUD - for Australian dollar
USD - for U.S. dollar
GBP - for U.K. pound
EUR - for Euro
JPY - for Japanese Yen

Amended returns

If this is an amended return, check the box on the top of the T106 Summary form.
You must re-complete the entire T106 information return package including the amendments (i.e. include all information not amended plus all amended information), and re-file this entire amended T106 information return package.

Amending a T106 return - Paper filed

If the initial T106 information return was paper filed, then the amended T106 information return must be paper filed.
Any amendments necessary to any information contained in the summary or in the slip(s) of the T106 return will require a resubmission of the entire paper filing. DO NOT E-file amendments to paper-filed returns. For purposes of these instructions, amendments include any changes to information previously provided on a summary or a slip, the cancellation of any slip(s) previously filed, and the addition of any new slip(s) omitted from the original filing. Clearly identify the nature of the amendment(s) by writing "AMENDED", "CANCELLED", or "ADDITIONAL" as appropriate at the top of the summary or slip being amended.
Alternatively, you may detail the amendment(s) required in a cover letter to accompany the summary or slip(s) that are being amended.

Amending a T106 return - Electronically filed

If the initial T106 information return was electronically filed, then the amended T106 information return can be electronically filed or paper filed.
f you have filed your T106 return electronically, any amendments necessary to any information contained in the summary or the slip(s) of the T106 return should also be submitted electronically. However, if you choose to amend your T106 return by paper, you must detail the amendments required in a cover letter to accompany the summary or slip(s) that are being amended. Clearly identify the nature of the amendment(s) by writing "AMENDED", "CANCELLED", or "ADDITIONAL" as appropriate at the top of the summary or slip being amended.

Section 1 - Reporting person/partnership identification

For partnership code, tick:

1 If the end partners are individuals or trusts.
2 If the end partners are corporations.
3 If the end partners are a combination of 1 and 2 mentioned above.

An end partner is the final recipient (corporation, trust or individual) that receives an allocation of income from the partnership after the income has flowed through the various levels of a tiered partnership.

For individual code, tick:

1 If either the individual or the individual's spouse is self-employed.
2 If neither the individual nor the individual's spouse is self-employed.

Section 2 -Summary information

Q.1. Enter the applicable tax year/fiscal period.

Q.2. State if this is the first time that a T106 information return has been filed. If "no," enter the last tax year-end/fiscal period end for which a T106 information return was filed.

Q.5. Enter the gross revenue of the reporting person/partnership. Do not enter the net income or taxable income. When reporting transactions between a non-arm's length party and a branch, enter the gross income attributable to the branch.

Q.6. State the main business activities of the reporting person/partnership by entering the appropriate NAICS code(s). The list of current NAICS codes can be found at www23.statcan.gc.ca/imdb/p3VD.pl?Function=getVD&TVD=1181553. Main business activity means any business segment that accounts for more than 10% of the gross revenue of the reporting person/partnership or the non-resident.

Q.10. A multinational enterprise (MNE) group is defined in subsection 233.8(1) of the Act. For additional information on filing requirements for the CbCR see RC4651 Guidance on Country-By-Country Reporting in Canada at: www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/forms-publications/publications/rc4651.

Certification

An authorized officer, person, or representative has to sign this form when it is completed. The certification declaration on this form applies to the T106 Summary and Slips.
